

THIRTY PERISH IN RAIL WRECK

Express Crashes Into Local Train on New Haven.

ONE COACH IS TELESOPED

Casualties Are All Believed to Have Occurred in the Rear Car of the Local, Which Was Standing at a Station at Time of the Accident.

Bradford, R. I., April 18.—Thirty or more persons are reported to have been burned to death in a collision of trains on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad here. Wrecking and hospital crews are said to have recovered thirty bodies.

The dead were in the rear car of a four-coach local train, bound from Boston to New London and which had stopped at the local station, when it was run down by the Giltedge express, bound from Boston for New York.

This coach was telescoped, set afire and burned. The car ahead also took fire and the flames, communicating to the passenger station and freight house, destroyed both buildings.

A hospital train came here from
New London and Medical Examiner M. H. Scanlon of Westerly, L. I., took charge of the search for the dead and care of the injured.

It is said that there are known to have been thirty-seven persons in the destroyed car and that only seven of these had been accounted for several hours later.

The accident was due, it is believed,
to wrong signals or failure properly to read the signals.

DROWN WHEN WAGON UPSETS

Two Sisters Meet Death in Flood Waters of River at Winona.

Winona, Minn., April 18.—Two more lives were sacrificed in the high waters of the Mississippi river. Within 300 feet of where four members of the Crogan family perished a week ago
Josephine Wicczorek, twenty-one years old, and Theodosia Wicczorek, her sister, nineteen, were drowned.

The younger girl had left her home near Bluff, Siding, Wis., across the river from Winona, driving a horse hitched to a light wagon. On the road leading to the approach of the Winona high wagon bridge she attempted to turn the rig when she met her sister returning from work in Winona.

The older girl was assisting in lifting the wagon at the rear when the horse became frightened. It backed, shoving the older girl into the water at the side of the road. Her sister went down still holding the reins. Both bodies were recovered. The horse also was drowned.

DUTY TO PUNISH HUSBAND

Woman Explains Journey From Brooklyn to Chicago.

Chicago, April 18.—"It was my obligation to society as a rescue worker and the principles for which I stand as a suffragist that brought me here to seek the punishment of my husband.
It wasn't revenge or jealousy." So says Mrs. Nora Perkins Jeanson, who came from Brooklyn to Chicago and charged that she found her husband, Edward A. Jeanson, sharing an apartment with a young woman. Mrs. Jeanson has been awarded a court order for $6 a week from her husband by Judge John R. Newcomer in the court of domestic relations and Jeanson's attorney has entered a motion for an appeal which will be heard on Thursday.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLS NURSE

Young Homesteader Exonerated by Coroner's Jury.

Reeder, N. D., April 18.—Mrs. Irene Puarie of Slim Butte, this county, was accidentally shot and killed by a young homesteader for whom she had been caring during an illness. The patient and another young man had quarreled during the day and in the evening, when the homesteader was aroused from sleep by a noise just outside the door of his home, he demanded to know who was there. Receiving no answer, and thinking it was the man with whom he had quarreled, he shot through the door and killed
Mrs. Puarie. The coroner's jury exonerated him.

Government Asks Paper Saving.

Washington, April 18.—The department of agriculture, in a circular issued, recommends the use of lighter weight papers to relieve the present stringency in paper making materials.
Many publishers and users of wrapping papers have adopted this plan, it is said. In a single year the government through this plan effected a saving of $38,000.

GENERAL SCRIVEN.

of Aviation Scandal.

Washington, April 18.—Secretary of War Baker has censured General Scriven and relieved Colonel Reber from aviation duty as the result of the army board's inquiry into the aviation scandal.

WILL FIGHT ONLY IN CAUSE OF HUMANITY

Washington, April 18.—President Wilson, speaking before the Daughters of the American Revolution here, declared the only excuse of the United States ever to fight would be in the cause of humanity. His words were applauded enthusiastically by delegates from all parts of the country.

America will have forgotten her traditions, said the president, if she fights merely for herself and added that the United States must not fight under such conditions as would show it had forgotten traditions. When America ceases to be unselfish, he said, it will cease to be America.

"Tradition is a handsome thing in the proportion to which we live up to it," declared the president. "But we must never fall below that tradition.
The birth of this nation was significant because no other nation was ever born in the world with the purpose of serving the rest of mankind."

"If we fall away from the tradition of the fathers we have dishonored them. If we forget the tradition of the fathers we have changed our character; we have lost an old impulse;
we have become unconscious of the principles in which the life of the nation itself is rooted and grounded."

NAVY SHOOTING IMPROVES

Admiral Mayo Reports Best Records
in Target Practice Ever Made.

Washington, April 18.—Vice Admiral Mayo of the Atlantic fleet reported to Secretary Daniels that the maneuvers just concluded off Guantanamo, Cuba, were the most successful ever held by the navy.

In target work, the admiral said,
marked efficiency was shown, excellent records being made with firing at greater range than ever before attempted.

"In every respect," he added, "the shooting was the best the navy ever did."

IMPORTANT COURT RULING

All Railway Employees Come Under Federal Safety Laws.

Washington, April 18.—The supreme court so construed the various federal safety appliance acts so that all employees—no matter whether engaged at the time in intrastate or interstate commerce—may recover damages for injuries occurring through failure of interstate commerce railroads to comply with the safety appliance laws.

It was regarded as a precedent making decision, giving safety appliance laws a scope far greater than the federal employers' liability law.

EVEN BIBLES COST MORE

Price Is Nearly Double That of Last Year.

New York, April 18.—The price of bibles has increased and is likely to advance still further because of the war. Statements issued by religious publication societies show that the expense of publishing prayer books, hymnals and other religious volumes is so much larger than heretofore that buyers have been obliged to pay nearly double the prices of last year. This is due mainly to the advance in the cost of paper, ink, leather and glue.

WILL ONLY BRING THE HEAD BODY TOO BADLY DECOMPOSED

New Hunt for Villa Started Believing that the Stories of His Death
are Manufactured

Von Ingle, Charged with Plotting Dynamite, Arrested after Fight with Five Officers

Will Bring Head
Body Decomposed

(By United Press)
El Paso, April 18.—Carranza's Counsel Garcia says that possibly only Villa's head will be brought in for identification. The decomposed condition of the body and the difficult travel through the mountains near the grave is given as the reason.

U. S. Will Accept
Carranza's Word

(By United Press)
El Paso, April 18.—An American official says if Col. Carlos Carranza, who knows Villa intimately, says the body exhumed is that of Villa the United States will accept identification and withdraw. It is not expected that the Carranzistas will object to an identification of Villa's body by Americans but it is thought that an official identification will be undisputed.

New Hunt for Villa
Has Been Started

(By United Press)
San Antonio, April 18.—Believing that the stories of Villa's death have been manufactured to delay his capture a new hunt for the bandit has been started.

Carranza Inclined
To Stand Pat

(By United Press)
Washington, April 18.—Consul Rodgers, of Mexico City, reported that until Gen. Carranza received a formal reply he was inclined to stand pat on the suggestions of the withdrawal of the United States troops, and pending the arrival expected Carranza was disinclined to discuss the case further, the United States report regarding the Parral affair differing from the Carranzas report sent Gen.
Carranza.

Details of Fighting
From Gen. Pershing

(By United Press)
With the American Army in Mexico, April 18.—Gen. Pershing has arrived at field headquarters after an all night's ride from Satro for a conference with his staff. He brought details of the Parral fighting, and said that after one American had been killed Major Thompson decided if his men were to be slaughtered
they would die fighting, and cut loose and soon the ground was strewn with Mexican dead. An enormous crowd of Mexicans, consisting chiefly of Carranza troops, surrounded the American troops.

Villa Hunt Second

(By United Press)
El Paso, April 18.—Gen. Pershing has reported to Gen. Funston that the Villa hunt would be a secondary matter to the protection of the United States soldiers in Mexico.

Withdrawal Troops
Now Seems Likely

(By United Press)
Washington, April 18.—The withdrawal of American troops from Mexico within a month now seem likely, and probably the action will be taken without getting Villa, but the steps will not be taken until the Villa bands are broken or Carranza is able to handle the chase. The government feels already that they have accomplished the enormous task and are ready to withdraw.

(By United Press)
New York, April 18.—The United

per cent increase in wages, effective

Under New Plans

(By United Press)
San Antonio, April 18.—The renewal of the chase for Villa and his band of bandits will be organized under new plans which will lessen the risk to the American troops while the American detachment is hurrying back toward Santevo where the reported finding of Villa's body originated, and while fighting is practically forgotten.

the justice department overpowered him in his office. He was indicted on Monday together with Von Papen and others charged with plotting to dynamite the Welland Canal and place bombs aboard the allies ships.
The government alleges that Von Ingle had charge of Von Papen's plans of this country after Von Papen went home. The state department consented to the indictments.

DOUBT PREVAILS IN MEXICO CITY

Officials Discredit Story That Villa Is Dead.

ARE WITHOUT ANY DETAILS

Impression Is Also Growing at El Paso, Tex., That Fugitive Mexican Raider Is Still Alive—Three American Soldiers Killed Since Crossing the Border.

Mexico City, April 18.—No messages have reached Mexico City tending to confirm the report of the finding of the body of Villa, and the general disposition in official circles is to discredit the report.

El Paso, Tex., April 18.—General
Gavira, Carranza commander at Juarez, announced that the Mexican telegraph wires between Juarez and Chihuahua had been blown down near Pearson and that for that reason he was unable to learn any further details of the reported discovery of the body of Villa.

At the same time a telegram, filed at Chihuahua City, presumably before the interruption to the wire service, was received from Consul Letcher, saying that nothing was known in the state capital regarding the finding of the bandit's body.

These two circumstances combined to reinforce the growing skepticism here as to the truth of the story that death has ended the career of the fugitive brigand.

The old story that the man who is really dead is Pablo Lopez, the notorious butcher of Santa Ysabel, and that Villa has deliberately used his death as the basis of a false report of his own decease, was revived.

This story was retold by an American owner of a large ranch in the Guerrero district, who said he had received it from his ranch foreman and believed it to be true.

The confidence of Mexican officials here and in Juarez that Villa is dead has not, however, diminished, outwardly, at least.

OFFICIALS WITHOUT NEWS

Reports of Villa's Death Still Lack Confirmation.

Washington, April 18.—Confirmation of the death of Francisco Villa still is lacking, both at the state and war departments and at the Mexican embassy.

The outstanding feature of the messages from the border were reports to the war department that six Mexicans, who confessed to having taken part in the raid on Columbus, N. M., had been captured and sent to Columbus for trial by the New Mexico state authorities.

Another official report relieved anxiety as to the supply problem for the troops at the front. It said the forces now were fully supplied, with the exception of a small shipment of horseshoes and clothing, which would go forward at once.

MONTANA OFFICIALS RILED

Take Exceptions to Utah Governor's Statement Alfalfa Weevil Is Rife.

Billings, Mont., April 18.—Montana state officials are up in arms over the wording of a call issued by the executive of Utah for a conference of western governors to discuss the alfalfa weevil situation. The call avers that the weevil is present in Utah, Idaho and Montana. Montana state officials take decided exception to this allegation, so far as Montana is concerned, and point to the fact that Montana quarantined last year against alfalfa imports from Utah. However, Montana will be represented at the proposed meeting at Salt Lake.

The convention will open on Wednesday morning, June 14th, and will come to a close with an official ball on June 15th at the armory. Boat excursions, automobile rides, visits to the steel plant and the model city are among the features of the entertainment program. A large number of the lodges and individual Elks have already made hotel reservations and those coming are urged to reserve accommodations as early as possible.

When you buy a Studebaker, you SAVE from $250 to $400

This $250 to $400 represents the difference between the price of a Studebaker and the price of any other car that equals it in value.

The reasons for this difference are immaterial to you as a buyer. What you WANT is the car that gives the most for its price. And when you find, as you will, that cars with the same power, size and quality that the SERIES 17 Studebaker offer cost hundreds of dollars more, make the salesman tell you WHY.

If a car gives no more, there's no reason at all for paying a higher price, is there? Just see these SERIES Studebakers. Make your own comparisons with other cars—then ask the other salesmen why THEY want from $250 to $400 more than the Studebaker prices? Thirty minutes spent in making such comparisons will save you several hundred dollars.

A military decoration more difficult to earn, or at least far more sparingly awarded than the emblem of the Legion of Honor, the Victoria cross or the Iron cross, is the medal of honor, which is the proud possession of a few American soldiers. ## WOMAN'S REALM

CHARGED FLIES MURDER BABIES

Flies Have Greater Toll of Lives
Among Women and Children
Than the Zeppelins

NURSING BABIES IN DANGER

Bottle-fed Babies Especially Easy Victims—1,200 Babies Die in Minnesota Annually

(Issued by the University of Minnesota College of Agriculture, Extension Division, A. D. Wilson, Director.)

There are morals as well as fables in slang. Here is one: "There are no flies on him; he's a live one." If you are a live one you will have no flies on you, in your house, barn or creamery this summer; and to keep them out you will destroy their breeding places.

If all the Zeppelins engaged in the European war were to drop bombs on the United States every night this summer, the victims would be few in comparison with those of the fly. Also their toll of women and babies would be no greater in proportion to their number of men.

The fly's specialty is the murder of nursing babies. Bottle-fed babies are especially easy victims. More than 1,200 children die every year in Minnesota from diarrheal diseases contracted from filth borne by flies. Flies, filth and artificial feeding are three great obstacles to put before any baby.

Dysentery and typhoid are fly-season diseases. The germs are carried by flies from the discharges of persons ill with dysentery or typhoid or convalescing from these illnesses. Flies enjoy wallowing in human filth, and flying thence to the kitchen or dining room, where they leave minute germs from their bewhiskered bodies as they crawl over bread, cake or sugar or around the moist rim of a glass of water. No less pleasant to them does the nursery, seem, where they can crawl over the baby's face, food or milk bottle.

Well water is frequently blamed for infections which flies have brought. There is little chance that a well may become infected. The fly is usually the carrier of germs attributed to water and he is collecting his germs from filth from the stables, out-houses and sick rooms.

Attendants on typhoid and dysentery patients are required by the State Board of Health to destroy the discharges of patients in order to prevent the spread of the diseases. Oftentimes this is not carefully done, however, and it is always safe to keep the fly away as one of the best methods of assuring that you and the baby will still be live ones at the end of the summer.

Living in London and in New York

By CHAS. P. STEWART
United Press Staff Correspondent
London, April 18—It costs more to live in London today than it costs to live in New York.

It costs more to live in the smaller cities and towns of England's provinces than it costs to live in the cities and towns of the United States.

Cleveland, Kansas City, Pittsburgh, Milwaukee, Dallas, San Francisco, Portland are cheaper places to live than Sheffield, Liverpool, Manchester, Hull and English cities like that.

Nevertheless, Brits returning today from the United States insist their country is still the cheaper for the masses.

Their mistake lies in the fact that the English do without many things Americans consider absolute necessities. Most such things are so high in England today that only plutocrats can have them.

Practically the only exception in England's favor is clothing and even clothing is higher. A good sack suit, English fit, which used to cost $20, now sells for $22.50. The price is still rising.

So are other prices. It is not a gradual rise. Hardly a day passes that an advance of 5 or 10 per cent is not announced in some staple.

Beef is 40 cents, mutton 28, pork 28, hardly any lamb is to be had, the killing of calves is prohibited; bread 9 cents a 2 pound loaf; good butter 42 cents, tea 52 cents; very soft coal $7.80 a ton; anthracite at $11.28.

Rentals are about the same as in the United States but include nothing.

Cooking and lighting gas in a 5-room flat cannot be kept below $10 or $12 monthly.

Telephone calls are 6 cents each. A 5-mile street car ride costs 7 cents.

Cigars which would be dear in the United States at a nickel a piece, retail in England at 14 cents.

The distilleries being used by the government for munition making, it is predicted that whiskey which sold at 78 to 96 cents a bottle will soon retail at $2.40.

The income tax has risen until it is a fearful burden. It begins with incomes of 130 pounds ($624) yearly. The assessment increases more than proportionately as the income grows larger. A man earning $2,500 annually, pays 36 cents on every $4.80. If his income is from investment the rate is much higher.

The net result is that an English family, moving to America and continuing to live according to the English standard, would have more money than at home, while an American family moving to England and continuing to live according to the American standard, would have materially less.

Size of Meals to be Reduced

By WILBUR S. FORREST
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

London, April 14—The imperial German government's order to all German hotel and restaurant keepers that they must reduce the size of the meals they serve, both as to variety and quantity, will be effective throughout Germany beginning with breakfast tomorrow morning. The bills of fare will be reduced to the smallest proportions on record and guests will not be permitted to eat more than one item from any single course—and not very much of that. The butter supply, for instance, now is restricted to 1-8 of a pound per person per week. Mighty little sugar is given. Other food supplies are held to corresponding proportions.

Germany is racing toward famine which has been foreseen since last summer by those who knew the truth about the summer harvest, according to Francis Gribble, the British novelist who has just returned to London after a year in the German internment camp at Ruhleben, near Berlin.

"There is no avoiding the conclusion," said Gribble today, "that the state of the German people soon will be much what the state of the Belgian people now would be but for American philanthropists."

"The date at which the catastrophe will occur depends upon a good many uncertain factors; but it cannot be long delayed."

"The 1915 summer harvest, what there was of it, was both sown and reaped while I was behind the barbed wires at Ruhleben. There was practically no rain from the end of March until the beginning of July."

"The crisis passed. Then came the lashing thunderstorms to complete the damage. Those of our custodians who were concerned with agriculture pulled long faces and used ugly language. There was no mistake about it—the German harvest of 1915 had failed."

The novelist quoted the Vorwarts, the outspoken German Socialist newspaper, to show that the 1915 harvest failed not only on account of drought but because: 1. The ground was not manured, the monopolization of railway equipment, by the military, preventing this. 2.—Horses and carts were scarce because of the army needs. 3.—Most skilled agriculturists were away at the seat of war and old men, women, children and prisoners couldn't do the work. 4.—The manufacturers of agricultural implements have turned their energies to the manufacture of implements of war. "Famine is inevitable whether peace comes soon or not. Prices will be high and the value of German money has sunk so low that 20 marks will buy only 5 marks' worth of goods; besides, Germany has no great quantities of goods to export and pay for food imports."

AN ORDEAL FOR STUDENTS.

Examinations in China Mean Stretches of Strenuous Work.

Learning in China is held in great esteem, and, says the Washington Star, a scholar is a marked and privileged man. In one typical literary center, Kanchon Poo, where students gather for their examinations, the working of the Chinese educational system may be observed to advantage.

A brilliant scene marks the opening of an examination, which is held in a great inclosure, the approaches to which, as well as the platform, are gorgeously decorated with red and yellow lanterns. Strangely enough, the doors are thrown open at midnight, and it is then that the candidates, who may number a couple of thousand and who are dressed in the long blue robes of the scholar, march in and take their seats.

The literary chancellor of the province, clad in silken garments of great magnificence, seats himself upon the platform. The doors are then closed, and the "text" from the classics is announced. The chancellor selects the text at random, and it is upon that text that the student must base his essay. Since the essay is composed under the eyes of an examiner and his lieutenants, cheating is out of the question.

The students who took their seats on this first midnight are sounded out by a big drum at 6 in the afternoon. They have eighteen hours in which to complete their essays. They are permitted to bring into the hall only light confectionery, although tea is often passed. In other words, they are expected to work and not to eat. They are allowed the six hours from sunset until midnight for rest, when the same men reassemble for a second trial.

On the third night those who are thought worthy make their third effort. With the third period the examination is completed, and a second set of men enters on the three days' ordeal.

Playing a Sure Thing.

Cynics—Those two men are both in love with her, and I'll wager the wrong fellow will get her. Sillicus—Which one? Cynicus—It doesn't matter which. —Judge.

Watch Your Waist Measure

By SAMUEL G. DIXON, M. D., LL. D.
(Pennsylvania Commissioner of Health)

Could you mobilize on short notice? Is your individual physical equipment always in condition to meet the demands nature may thrust upon it? Could you run half a mile if your life were at stake? Could you do half a day's manual labor with safety?

Of course you may say with perfect truth that there are not apt to be any such demands upon you. You earn your daily bread by mental exertion. But are you sure that your mental equipment is at par? Chances are that the man who permits himself to deteriorate physically cannot reach the maximum of his mental capacity.

Nature meant the human animal to have considerable physical exertion to maintain life. Complexities of modern civilization have forced many men and women into occupations where it requires effort to find time for even a little exercise. We accept such a condition with some superficial expression of regret and move along until nature declares war.

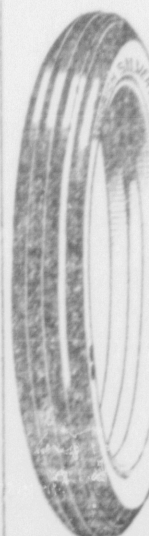

You can make no treaties to insure your safety under such conditions. Nothing short of a consistent policy of moderate exercise and temperate living will prepare you to meet the vital individual emergency. Your turn will surely come! Are you ready?

Personal pride should offer sufficient incentive to a man or woman to keep in such condition that they can mount a flight of stairs without puffing or button their shoes without contortions.

The person who wants to really live should watch his or her waist measure and chest expansion with at least the same attention he or she bestows upon the bank account.

The Lavish Jenkins.

In October, 1886, a religiously minded Buckinghamshire farmer named Jenkins brought his firstborn to the parish church to be christened, and this was to be the name: Abel Benjamin Caleb Daniel Ezra Felix Gabriel Haggai Isaac Jacob Kish Levi Manoah Nehemiah Obadiah Peter Quartus Reuben Samuel Tobiah Uzziel Vaniah Word Xystus Zechariah. It will be observed that the names are all arranged in alphabetical order and are as far as possible selected from Scripture. It was only with the very greatest difficulty that the clergyman dissuaded Mr. Jenkins, but eventually it was decided to christen the boy simply Abel.—Chambers' Journal.

"Ki-chi-saga" meaning large and beautiful was the Chippewa name for the largest lake in this county. When the county was established in 1851, W. H. C. C. Folsom, a pioneer settler, represented the interests of the inhabitants before the legislature and proposed "Chisago" for its name, the first syllable being dropped for euphonic reasons. Indian names were not popular with members of the legislature then and some opposition developed, but the committee accepted the name by a clerical error the final "a" was changed to "o" in the enrolled law.

Caesar Built Good Roads

(Mason City Times)

When Caesar took a westward ride And grabbed the Gauls for Rome What was the first thing that he did To make them feel at home? Did he increase the people's loads, And liberty forbid? No, he dug in and built good roads— That's what old Caesar did.

Did Caesar put the iron heel Upon the foeman's breast, Or did he try to make them glad That Roman rule was best? What did he do to make them glad? He came their lands amid, He built good roads in place of bad— That's what old Caesar did.

He built good roads from hill to hill, Good roads from vale to vale; He ran a good roads movement Till old Rome got all the kale. He told the folks to buy at home, Built roads their ruts to rid, Until all roads led up to Rome— That's what old Caesar did.

If any town would make itself The center of the map, Where folks will come and settle down And live in plenty's lap; If any town its own abodes Of poverty would rid, Let it go out and build good roads— Just like old Caesar did.

JUDGE CITED TO EXPLAIN

Must Tell Higher Court Reason for Not Certifying Case.

San Francisco, April 18.—Judge William C. Van Fleet of the United States district court was ordered by the United States circuit court of appeals to show cause May 6 why he should not certify to the higher court an affidavit charging his disqualification to hear Western Pacific railroad litigation. He refused to do so a week ago.

FRENCH TO GIVE COLLATERAL

Proposed Loan in United States Will Be Backed by Securities.

New York, April 18.—The impending French loan, it was authoritatively learned, will not be backed by any obligation of the French government. The collateral that will underlie the loan, whose amount and interest rate are yet to be determined, will consist of securities of neutral countries.

AUSTRIA WORKING TO PREVENT RUPTURE.

London, April 18.—The Budapest correspondent of the Morning Post sends the following: "Negotiations between the United States and Germany are being followed eagerly in Austria-Hungary. Count Tisza, the Hungarian premier, is vehemently opposing any policy likely to lead to a rupture with the United States."

HUGHES' POSITION STILL UNDEFINED

Roosevelt Men Are Unable to "Smoke Out" the Justice.

CANNOT EXPRESS OPINION.

Position on the Supreme Court Bench Prevents Him From Favoring or Opposing National Preparedness—Like-wise He Cannot Say That He Would Accept the Republican Nomination.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 18.—[Special.]—Colonel Roosevelt's close friends say that Hughes must declare himself; that the people must know whether Hughes will accept the Republican nomination if it is tendered him and that they must know further where the justice stands upon the important question of preparedness.

These are utterly impossible conditions. Justice Hughes cannot say that he will accept the nomination; he cannot say where he stands upon any of the great questions before the country. If the people of the country take Justice Hughes—and there are many Republicans who have asserted their determination to take him—they will accept him upon what he has done heretofore and with confidence in him as a man who will do what is best for the country if he becomes president.

"Smoking Out" Process.

There has been heard talk about "smoking out" Justice Hughes. He happens to be in a position where he can't be smoked out, because he does not have to answer any more questions nor make any further declarations. Not being a candidate for the nomination, he does not have to "declare himself," as the Roosevelt men put it.

As a supreme court justice he can stand upon his dignity and refuse to discuss these subjects of armament and war, which is wholly in the province of the legislators and the executive department. Friends of the justice are wondering just what move can be made in the "smoking out" process that will be effective.

Chamberlain in Earnest.

Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the military committee, is much in earnest about national defense. He was telling the senate one day that one of the nations was now demanding that a vessel shall not leave the United States for Europe unless its manifest is viced by its agents.

"Do you think the failure of the United States to demand that England respect our rights is because of our lack of preparation?" asked Chamberlain. "Certainly," replied Chamberlain. "Did not the president go out on a western tour and say that preparation was necessary? What did he mean by that?"

Yardman did not answer, and the inference of the chairman of the military committee was that we need more force to assert our rights against Great Britain.

Making Himself Unpopular.

Congressman Frear of Wisconsin has just performed his annual, self imposed task of making himself unpopular in the house. He has fought the river and harbor bill from end to end and antagonized about four-fifths of the members who had projects in the bill.

Voted For Pensions.

There was a little party scrap in the senate one day when Senator Smoot moved that the pension bills be considered. Southern Democratic senators opposed the motion, but the Republicans voted for it and with them enough Democratic senators from northern states to carry the motion. The northern Democratic senators will not oppose pension legislation.

Let the Court Do It.

The constitutional lawyers did not fight and spar and argue over the constitutional questions in the army bill as long as was expected. The disposition was to let the court fight out and decide those questions. Senator Borah proved conclusively that certain provisions of the bill were unconstitutional. Other senate lawyers said that certain provisions were probably unconstitutional. But by general consent it seemed that these constructionists of the constitution were willing that the court should determine the provisions of the bill if they ever reached the stage of court proceedings.

Tariff Talk.

The tariff talk in the senate was not political to any great extent. The sugar bill was passed after a short debate and by an agreement showing that neither side desired to indulge in political speeches on the subject at this time. Perhaps it was because the senators want to get home, but the probabilities are that this tariff talk was abandoned because there is so much guesswork, so many "ifs" and "ands" as to what might have happened if there had been no war or if the war should end.

Primaries at Home.

It is often announced that one senator or another is "unavoidably absent." Tracing the facts closely one can find that there is probably a primary or some other political event going on in the home state of such senator which make it important for him to be on the ground. Nearly all the senators whose terms expire next March are candidates for re-election.

FINAL NOTE TO GERMANY READY

Communication May Go Forward at Once.

TONE SAID TO BE EMPHATIC

President Wilson and Secretary Lansing Have Been in Almost Constant Communication the Past Two Days. German Embassy Expects News.

Washington, April 17.—The communication in which the United States will call Germany to account for the numerous recent submarine attacks on merchant ships carrying American citizens is understood to be ready for transmission to Berlin.

Officials indicated that it might go forward at any time.

President Wilson devoted nearly the entire day to completing the case of the United States for presentation to the German government.

He had before him a mass of evidence and memoranda submitted by the state department.

The communication in its completed form, it was said authoritatively, is to be emphatic in its declarations and possibly will recall statements made by the United States in previous correspondence on the subject of submarine warfare.

It is designed to be the final word of this government on the subject.

Secretary Lansing has been in almost constant communication with President Wilson during the past two days. The secretary said that no additional information of value had been received.

Secretary Lansing said there has been no report from Ambassador Gerard in Berlin.

At the German embassy it was said that while dispatches from Berlin were expected none had been received.

Exaggerated Optimism.

"Bliggins is trying to be an optimist."

"The last time I saw him he thought everything was going to smash."

"He thinks so yet. But he's getting into a frame of mind that makes him suspect that maybe he'll enjoy seeing it happen."—Washington Star.

MAKING FELT HATS

The Process From Raw Material to Finished Product.

MANY BRANDS OF FUR USED.

Ingenious Methods by Which the Pelts Are Cleaned and the Various Grades of Hair Are Mixed and Worked into the Required Shape.

One of the very interesting exhibits in the division of textiles of the National museum at Washington shows clearly just how such hats are made—from the fur to the finished product—and includes many of the latest and most popular styles ready to wear, as well as special shapes manufactured for particular foreign markets. The exhibit is accompanied with photographs illustrating scenes in the factory of one of the largest and best known American hat manufacturers. These enable the observer to connect the materials, apparatus and finished products shown into a tangible story.

In the manufacture of one of the most popular brands of American hats the fur of North American beaver, South American nutria, Saxony hare and English and Scotch coneys are used. When the pelts of these animals are received at the factory they are first washed with whale oil soap, after which the long, coarse hairs are removed, since they would tend to make the felt too rough. The skins are then treated with nitrate of mercury, a process called "carroting," which gives the fur its "feeling properties," making it knit together when hot water and pressure are applied. The skins are then brushed by a machine which removes all the dust and other foreign substances.

The skin next goes to a cutting machine, where revolving shears strip away the fur, cutting it so close that it appears to have been shaved off. From this machine the fur is carried away on an endless belt or apron, on which it lies complete, just as it was in the pelt, and it is hard to realize that the skin below has actually been removed. This is to facilitate the work of the sorters who select from the belt as it passes them just the parts desired for various grades of hats.

Although cleaned, carotted and sorted, the fur is by no means ready for use. It has to be seasoned, just like lumber, and is stored until ready for use. Some manufacturers have a million or two dollars' worth of fur seasoning in storage. When the fur is properly seasoned it is mixed in certain proportions to produce the desired texture and color, and from here on the work is not done mechanically but by hand, being mainly a question of art and skill. After various portions of different kinds of fur have been selected the actual mixing is done by a machine which blows them about in various compartments until the blending is perfectly even.

A certain amount of fur is then weighed out, according to the weight of the hat to be made, and blown upon a copper cone perforated with many thousand tiny holes, so that it looks like a sieve. The cone is about three feet in height and as wide at the base. An exhaust fan operates inside and below the cone so that the air and fur are drawn from the outside. The air passes through the openings, but the fine particles of fur stick and cover the whole surface.

The cone holding the film of fur is enclosed in a snugly fitting jacket and lowered into a vat of boiling water. This develops the felting properties of the fur, the particles of which mat and lock together, enabling the thin, delicate film of wet fur to be lifted from the cone. The resulting cone of fur is a very delicate embryo hat, except as to size; in that respect it might be the hat for a giant.

A bundle of about twelve of these large forms is rolled in a wet condition until the fibers knit together slightly, giving the hats hardness and strength. Then they are put into a sizzling kettle, where they are shrunk until they are between ten and fourteen inches in diameter. Each hat is then stretched, pulled and blocked with the aid of hot water until it takes the form of a regular hat with crown and brim.

If the hat is to be a soft one it has only to be placed on a block and finished with fine sandpaper, which gives it a velvety appearance. The outside band and binding and the sweat band are then added, after which the brim is curled.

Stiff hats, or dorbies, are saturated with a solution of shellac before they are blocked. They are then put into an oven until they become pliable, when they are blocked with a tremendous pressure on a mold which shapes and curls them at one operation. Following which they are lined and trimmed.

LINCOLN AT A DEATHBED.

When "God and Eternity and Heaven Were Very Near."

We made a pilgrimage to see an old retired army officer who had been a journeyman printer in an office in Springfield, Ill., and one of Lincoln's intimate acquaintances and asked him to tell us a story that the magazines and books had not found. He told this: "One day Lincoln asked me to ride fifteen miles out in the country with him and become a witness to a will he was to write for a woman on her deathbed. When the will had been signed and witnessed the woman asked him if he would not read a few verses out of the Bible to her. They offered him the book, but he did not take it, but began reciting from memory the Twenty-third Psalm, laying especial emphasis upon 'Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.' Without the book he took up the first part of the fourteenth of John. 'In my Father's house are many mansions.' After he had given these and other quotations from the Scriptures he recited several hymns, closing with 'Rock of Ages, Cleft For Me.'"

"I thought at the time I had never heard any electrician speak with such ease or power as he did. I am an old man now, but my heart melts, as it did then in that death chamber, as I remember how with a pathos truly divine he spoke the last stanza beginning, 'While I draw this fleeting breath.' The woman died while we were there."

"Riding home, I expressed surprise that he should have acted as pastor as well as attorney so perfectly, and he replied, 'God and eternity and heaven were very near to me today.'"—Christian Herald.

TO CLOSE PICTURE SHOWS ON SUNDAY

Rev. M. L. Hostager, Rev. R. E. Cody and Rev. G. P. Sheridan Urge Council to do This

COUNCIL CONSIDERS MATTER

Ordinance for Smoke Consumers May be Drafted—Clean Up Week Urged by Mayor Beise

A delegation of ministers, Rev. M. L. Hostager, Rev. R. E. Cody and Rev. G. P. Sheridan, representing the Ministerial Association, addressed the council Monday evening and made a plea to have the moving picture shows close Sunday. They claimed the shows were keeping people from church.

Clyde E. Parker, head of the Brainerd Theatre & Amusement Co., spoke and said he was willing to close Sunday if the council would give him an exclusive franchise of the show business in Brainerd. The council, however, can give no exclusive franchises in anything.

If an exclusive franchise were possible, Mr. Parker said he would close Sundays. As it now stood, Sunday was the best day in the moving picture business. The council took the matter under consideration.

As long as a show is no nuisance, there is no violation of state or city ordinance in conducting a moving picture show Sunday. The question was thoroughly discussed some years ago in Brainerd, with the result that the picture shows continued their Sunday performances.

Mayor R. A. Beise addressed the council on the necessity of "Clean Up and Paint Up" week. C. E. Hansing of the Chamber of Commerce, also spoke. Dr. C. S. Reimstad, health officer, spoke on the necessity of appointing sanitary police.

On motion of Aldermen Benson and Peterson, carried, it was ordered that citizens be requested, through notice in the paper, to clean up their respective premises before May 1. Alderman Iver Benson recommended that the city team be kept at street cleaning work. Cement streets, especially, should be cleaned.

Alderman Iver Benson brought up the smoke consumer article of the Brainerd Dispatch and said there was merit in the contention. A particularly aggravating example of the kind was on the south side. President Farrar suggested having an ordinance drawn up to cover the matter. On motion, the smoke consumer propaganda was referred to the street committee of which Alderman Benson is chairman.

The chief of police was given permission to hire rigs for long distance calls. Curbing near 14th and Oak is about to tumble down. Repairs were ordered made.

Dr. E. E. Long and C. E. Hansing spoke of last year's Chautauqua and the license fee demanded of the guarantors.

Fire Chief McGinn referred to a flag pole for the fire hall. On motion of Aldermen Peterson and Turcotte the city engineer was instructed to place the pole. P. B. Nettleton wanted the city hall grounds laid out in alfalfa. On motion it was referred to the city property committee.

On motion of Aldermen Turcotte and Koop $50 disinfectants were ordered bought. On motion of Aldermen Peterson and Haake the city engineer was instructed to give Rev. R. E. Cody the grade for the sidewalk at his property. The proper committee was instructed to inspect the stone crusher.

West Brainerd people voiced an appeal for light in their section of the town. Elmer House said 22 families paid each $5 or more taxes annually. They did their own cleaning up in West Brainerd and many times had to stop the rest of Brainerd from making a dumping grounds of West Brainerd. They never had received a thing from the city in the way of improvements. They needed lights. New houses were being built. Strangers wanted to buy lots there and build.

Alderman Morrison remarked Nineteenth street wanted lighting facilities too.

On motion the West Brainerd petition was referred to the finance committee.

Permission was given the First National bank to use streets adjoining, for construction work on the remodeled bank building to start soon.

The bidding for the privilege of supplying ice to the city hall and fire hall developed into a spirited contest between the Brainerd Ice Co. and the Peoples Ice Co. The Brainerd Ice Co. offered a fountain free to the city and ice in both places at $30 a year. The Peoples Ice Co. offered straight ice from Perch lake at $34.50 per year and won in the vote taken, 7 to 2.

ELECTED BOARD MEMBER

Elmer G. Forsberg, New Member of Board of Education From Northeast Brainerd

Elmer G. Forsberg was elected a member of the board of education from the third ward and has qualified. He succeeds J. W. Welch who resigned and gave as his reason for so doing that he was unable to attend meetings and could not give the office proper attention.

On the informal ballot the vote stood, Forsberg 7, Hugo Schwartzkopf 1, Richard Isle 1. The formal ballot gave Forsberg 8, Isle 1. The teachers of last year were again engaged and in some few instances a slight increase of salary was voted.

LOTS TO BURN

Large lot N. E. ready for garden, for sale. Other large lots near Mill covered with trees; enough fuel to burn for years. Cleared lots $100. Fuel lots $50 and $75 for April sale. Cash or easy terms. Choose now while the choosing is good. Nettleton, 321 6th St. S., phones N. W. 581-L. Minn. 6215. 27611-w1

Too Inquisitive.

A young man who has theatrical aspirations loves to boast of his connections with the stage business.

In company with some traveling performers in the lounge of a hotel not long since the young man carelessly observed:

"Oh, yes; I took a show out once." But the wind was knocked out of his sails when one of the actors asked him:

"Who brought it back?"—Pittsburgh Telegraph.

STEEL CAR REPAIR SHOPS

New Industry in Brainerd Gives Employment to Many. Quarters are in the Old Foundry

NEW SIDE TRACKS ARE LAID

Extra Gang Completes Work There and is Now Engaged in Putting in Spur to Gas Plant

A new industry in Brainerd is that of a steel car repair shop, the Northern Pacific railway company using for this purpose the old foundry structure. Business has increased so much that more sidetracks were needed.

An extra gang has just finished laying two tracks to the old foundry, making three tracks to the place.

The extra gang of 25 men is now engaged in laying the spur track to the site of the new gas plant, the track to extend 400 feet south of Laurel street at a point near the Mississippi bridge.

GULL LAKE OUTING CO.

Property Formerly Owned by Association Sold by Fred B. Lynch To James M. Elder

What is known as the Gull Lake Outing Co. property on Gull lake has been sold by Fred B. Lynch of St. Paul to James M. Elder of Brainerd. The grounds embrace 65 acres and include the summer home of Mr. Lynch, private electric light plant, boats, three launches, personal property of the home, horses and buggy. There is a fine tennis court on the grounds.

The tract fronts to the north on a meandering creek, to the east on Round lake and the west on Gull lake. The property has enhanced in value over the old days when the Outing club disposed of the land for about $1,800. It is now considered some of the finest summer resort land in the lake region of Minnesota. To the south is the land previously acquired by Mr. Elder, of which some has been platted. To the north is the land which Jamison & Peacock recently acquired.

Mr. Lynch has other property on Pelican lake, lake shore frontage, which at some future time he will probably improve.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORY OF TODAY

It was about a train order which a new man had turned out, it is said, at the M. & I. and its construction was a gem, something to be appreciated by a railroad man and whose funny side would appeal to one who was no expert in dispatching. Here it is:

"Train 44 will meet Train 45 at the same place where they did yesterday."

Hollow Land.

The Dutch people occupy a country which contains 12,000 square miles—little more than one-tenth of the size of Great Britain and Ireland, the population being just over 6,000,000. Holland is not only flat, it is hollow; hence its name, "Hollowland." Along the canals the meadows are ten or twelve feet, sometimes more, beneath the water line. By the sea, at high tide, there may be a difference in the level of the soil and of the ocean of quite twenty-five feet or more.—London Globe.

It Will Be All Right Then.

Edith—I shouldn't think you'd want to marry such a forgetful man as Jack. Ethel—But he says the reason he forgets things is because he's thinking so constantly of me that he cannot remember anything else. Edith—Oh, I see. You don't expect to have any trouble after you are married.—Boston Transcript.

Self Complacency.

"A man should pause every now and then and take stock of himself," said the genial philosopher.

"That's all right for a modest man," replied the student of human nature, "but rather a bad plan for the sort of fellow who rates himself a little higher every time he does it."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

For Hang-on Coughs, Colds.

For the coughs that run into consumption, a remedy is needed that will work on the blood, make it pure, rich and wholesome, build up the wasting tissues and put the body into condition for a fight against this dread disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery fights in the right way. Its first action is to put the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys in good working order. That makes digestion good and assimilation quick and thorough; it makes sound, healthy flesh. That's half the battle. This makes the "Discovery" good for those who are lighter in weight and less robust than they ought to be.

All medicine dealers can supply you in either liquid or tablet form or send 10 cents for trial box of tablets to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. Anyone can write Dr. Pierce in full confidence for free medical advice.

Austin, Minn.—"About twenty years ago I caught a severe cold which left me with a very bad cough. I tried many different medicines, but instead of getting better I grew worse all the time. I went on this way for about nine months, when my mother got me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It helped me from the start and four bottles completely cured me. It was a great relief to feel well, as I had almost given up hopes of being any better. Since that time the 'Discovery' has been one of my family medicines and it has never failed to give relief. One of my daughters is taking it now. It is the best medicine I know of and I am glad to recommend it."—Mrs. Frank Beckel, 303 Hickory Street.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY LAUDED BY WILSON

New York, April 17.—President Wilson characterized the Democratic party as the party "for all the forward-looking forces of the country," in a letter read at the annual dinner of the Young Men's Democratic club here.

The president was to have been the principal speaker, but was prevented from filling the engagement by pressure of foreign affairs. Joseph P. Tumulty, his secretary, read the letter, which follows:

"The Democratic party has become the party for young men and for all the forward looking forces of the country; for those who will not turn back to privileged control and who do mean to go forward to the realization of every genuine human right."

"I had hoped to have the privilege of speaking to you, however imperfectly, the message of hope and confidence which should spring to the lips of every Democrat who seeks in their true light the past achievements and future opportunity of the great party to which we belong."

PRESIDENT ONLY KNOWS DETAILS

Note to Berlin Said to Be of an Emphatic Nature.

ATTACKS WITHOUT WARNING

Paper Will Contain Statement That Sixty-five Vessels Have Been Torpedoed in the Past Few Weeks by German Submarines.

Washington, April 18.—Sixty-five vessels have been reported officially and unofficially as having been attacked without warning in the past few weeks by German submarines.

This, it was disclosed, will be one of the statements in the note which the United States government will send to Germany.

Attacks without warning by submarines on merchant vessels since Germany gave notice that ships carrying guns would be considered as vessels of war have been closely studied by the president, with the resulting conclusion that promises made by Germany have not been followed.

As soon as the president had finished the communication to Germany he directed that Senator Stone, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, be invited to the White House that he might be informed of the intentions of the administration.

Mr. Wilson himself was the only official familiar with the details of the document, but it was learned authoritatively that it is the most emphatic and vigorous diplomatic paper the president ever has approved.

TERMS ARE MADE PUBLIC

Chicago Packers Make Concession to Great Britain.

London, April 18.—The foreign office issued a statement for publication in the British press announcing a settlement of the cases of the Chicago meat packers arising from the seizure of a number of their cargoes.

In addition to the Armour, Swift, Hammond, Morris and Schwarzschild & Sulzberger companies, the case of the Cudahy company, which was represented by British solicitors, is included in the settlement. The foreign office statement says:

"The settlement provides that his majesty's government, in consideration of a sum of money paid to the packers, shall regulate the entire shipment by the packers of all packing house products to neutral European countries during the continuation of the war.

"The government considers this provision to be of importance."

GERMAN INFANTRY ATTACKS REPULSED

London, April 18.—Again the Germans have launched a powerful infantry attack against the French positions extending from the River Meuse to Douaumont and again they have been swept back, except where they obtained a footing in a small portion of the Chaufour wood.

By the guns of the French heavy casualties were inflicted on the attacking forces along the two and a half miles battle front.

The Germans have kept up their heavy shelling of Hill 304, northwest of Verdun, and the second lines of the French in this region, probably with the intention of again throwing their infantry forward in an endeavor to capture these important points—keys to the Verdun position on the west.

LUTHERANS WILL PROTEST

Object to Address Sent to the Allied Nations.

St. Paul, April 18.—A protest against the "Address to the People of the Allied Nations," which was signed by 500 prominent, pro-ally Americans and published in the entente countries, is being circulated among the 2,000,000 members of the German Lutheran church in the United States, according to Theodore Buenger, president of Concordia college, a German Lutheran theological institution in St. Paul.

"German Lutherans are Americans," Mr. Buenger said. "They have obeyed strictly President Wilson's neutrality proclamation."

BRITISH WILL SEIZE COAL

Neutral Shipowners Warned Not to Have Fuel of German Origin.

London, April 18.—Neutral shipowners were warned by the British foreign office that all cargoes or bunkers of coal of German origin in neutral ships will be liable to seizure under the order in council of March 11.

The foreign office advised neutrals to obtain certificates from British consular officers showing that the coal in their ships did not originate in Germany.

Army maneuvers will be part of the annual spring training of American troops on the isthmus, directed by General Edwards, commander of the canal zone.

Some of the problems undertaken will deal with the defense of the Pacific entrance to the canal.

All of the seventy-five inmates were removed safely, eighteen being carried out in beds.

The building had replaced one destroyed by fire last year.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY INDICTS VON PAPEN

New York, April 18.—Captain Franz von Papen, recalled military attaché to the German embassy at Washington, was indicted by the federal grand jury here as the organizer and financier of an alleged conspiracy to blow up the Welland canal, in Canada, in September, 1914.

With him also were indicted Captain Hans Tauscher, alleged agent of the Krupp in the United States and husband of Mme. Johanna Gadske, the prima donna; Constantine Govani, Alfred J. Fritzen and another man whose name has not been revealed. It was learned from a reliable source that the last named is a prominent German whose name has been mentioned frequently in connection with German propaganda.

Von Papen was designated by federal officials as the "brains" of the alleged conspiracy.

PIG IRON EXPORTS BARRED

Great Britain Also Prohibits Sending Out of Many Kinds of Steel.

London, April 15.—The British government proclaimed an absolute prohibition of the export to any destination of all kinds of pig iron and nearly all kinds of steel. The prohibition of steel applies specially to the varieties used by railroads and shipbuilders.

The exportation of soap containing more than 1 per cent of glycerin also is prohibited.

ENTITLED TO PUBLIC TRIAL

District Court Reversed Because Judge Excluded Public.

Helena, Mont., April 14.—Holding that the district court erred in excluding the public from the trial of the case of the state of Montana against Louis Keeler, convicted of a statutory crime in Gallatin county, the supreme court in an opinion written by Judge Holloway, reversed the judgment. The judge before whom the trial was conducted in Gallatin county excluded the public from the trial owing to the salacious character of the evidence. The supreme court in the opinion rendered holds that the court committed an error in so doing, in that the constitution guarantees to everyone accused of committing a crime a public trial.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
